

How to help prevent medication errors:

Don't give medications brought from home unless approved by our pharmacy team.

Tell your doctors and nurses about all medications your child takes at home and about all allergies your child has.

Make sure you know what medications your child is being given and any side effects to watch for.

The nurses must scan into the computer any medication your child will be given, make sure this is done BEFORE the medication is given to your child.